

This season's must-have gifts are only a click away ...

... but it's time to set your internal metronome to "Presto," because time is running out to purchase ClefWearables' witty, wise, and undeniably fetching shirts, caps, winter wear, and messenger bags. To ensure delivery before Christmas and Hanukah, visit www.ClefWearables.com and place your order by December 8.

Wave your tuning fork in the air like you just don't care

Share the fun (and funny fermatas) of ClefWearables merchandise by forwarding the link (www.ClefWearables.com) to your friends and fellow music lovers throughout North America. Is there really a better or more effective way to subtly suggest to your friends, music students, or family what you'd really like to receive this holiday season? Be certain to remind them that these cool clothes and accessories come complete with a conscience: profits will help realize ClefWorks' unwavering dream of making classical music approachable and exciting for people of all ages.

ClefWorkers unite!

Before you know it, the highly-anticipated Dream On season will be here. ClefWorks' January 2009 concert festival needs your help to be successful, and at any one of a few quick volunteer organizational sessions, you can learn how to join our merry band.

On Monday, December 8, and Tuesday, December 9, former, current, and interested new ClefWorkers are encouraged to discover more about the upcoming festival season and volunteer opportunities. On December 8 at 5:15 pm, you're welcome to come hear about plans for January and find a spot where you can touch the music and hear the art. If the afternoon isn't your best time, you can take advantage of the same opportunity on December 9 at 10:00 am. ClefWorks will provide light snacks, and both meetings will be very brief -- about 30 to 45 minutes. Come to Cafe Louisa for tea, coffee or your favorite beverage and plan to stay after the meeting to visit with friends. In fact, if you have friends who might be interested in volunteering with you, why not invite them to come, too?

Be part of the dream! If you'd like to attend either get-together, please respond to leah@clefworks.org by December 6.
