

Dreaming of Winter ...

Because ClefWorks' highly anticipated Dream On season begins in a few short months!

Celebrate a City of Dreams and Dreamers

As the home to world-changing dreamers and their hard-won dreams, Montgomery will be at the heart of ClefWorks' 2009 Dream On season. Public performances, educational opportunities, and outreach programs will celebrate Montgomery's storied history and envision new hopes for the city's future through a melding of musical and artistic mediums.

Dream with us

Your support is vital to the ClefWorks' dreams becoming a reality. As a ClefWorks patron, you can play an instrumental role in bringing ClefWorks' patented blend of casual, innovative, cross-fertilizing musical excellence to Montgomery. Visit www.Clefworks.org/sponsors.

A Beautiful Duet in the Works

ClefWorks is thrilled to partner with the Junior League of Montgomery for the Children's Concert slated for this January's Dream On season. Talented League members are already hard at work, and their valuable time investment is just as appreciated as the League's financial support of the generation-bridging concert. Children's Concert Chair Kimberly Baker and her team are tuning up for an entertaining, educational event sure to thrill and inspire local students.

Grace Notes: Other Musical Happenings in Montgomery

On Monday, October 13, the Montgomery Symphony Orchestra's Masterpiece Season begins with a bang, featuring pieces by perennial favorites Smetana, Tchaikovsky, and Mendelssohn and performances by new Cello Fellow Dan Totan and Violin Fellow Sun-Young Gemma Shin. What's the best way to make certain Bach, Mozart, and gifted guest musicians and vocalists are in your future? Become a season ticket-holder. Visit www.montgomerysymphony.org/concerts_tickets.

This Saturday, October 4, The Alabama Christian College of Arts and Sciences presents Encore in concert at the Lester Chapel Harris-Parker Building on the Faulkner University campus. This all-male ensemble will perform in musical styles ranging from Renaissance to rock, and patrons can meet the performers after the concert while savoring coffees and lattes brewed by reception host Starbucks. The curtain goes up at 7:30 p.m., and admission is free. For questions or to reserve seats, contact Bill Taylor at 269-5663 or btyrcog@charter.net or Shane Nishibun at nishibun@gmail.com.
